August 9, 2015—Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE BEGINNING OF EVERYTHING

Everyone recognizes the truth of good proverbs, and so they endure from generation to generation. The Russians have a surprisingly bold one that fits this Sunday's Gospel: "Bread is the beginning of everything."

Judging from the first reading, Elijah might have felt that it was too late for bread--too late for life itself. This great prophet was at the end of his rope and endurance. Then, not one, but two angels visit him. One offers food and drink. The other gives startling directions. For Elijah, this food from the angels is bread for his journey. On the strength of the heaven-sent gift of food, he walks to the mountain of God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers himself, not just as bread for the journey, but as bread for life itself. He gives his flesh as life for the world. "I am the bread of life" (John 6:48). He is the beginning of everything.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In an age given to slogan T-shirts, one of the last bastions of "dressing up" is the wedding. Everyone seems to stretch toward the old ideal of "Sunday best" for these moments. In our tradition, clothing is immensely important. Coming out of the baptismal water, we are immediately vested with a white garment. "You have clothed yourself in Christ," the new Christian is told, and a white garment is the token of being born into God's family. Sadly, this is the last time most Christians wear this garb until their funeral, when the family spreads a pall as a reminder of baptismal identity.

Increasingly today, we are seeing the alb as the proper garb for liturgical ministers, men and women. In ancient Rome, sleeveless tunics of varying colors were worn by everyone, and so at baptism the new Christians could be expected to wear their new garb under their everyday clothes. Sleeves were a problem for ancient Romans, who thought they were a barbarian fashion. As is so often the case, eventually the barbarians won the day, and by the third century the long-sleeved garment worn by ministers today was familiar liturgical garb. --Rev. James Field, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Thank You...

The Fathers of the Holy Spirit send their thanks for the encouraging response on the part of St. Mary Parish to their appeal the weekend of July 18-19, 2015 and for the kind reception given to Rev. Evod Shao, C.S.Sp., who was here on their behalf.

Be assured of the prayers of the Spiritans worldwide for you, and for your intentions and of their need for your continued prayers for them and for their ministries to God's lowly and needy ones everywhere.

Do please continue to keep the missions of the Church in your hearts, the work of the Holy Spirit Fathers in mind, and the never-ending need to proclaim the witness to the Gospels in your own lives.

The Walk/Run will take place on Saturday, September 26, 2015 at St. Mary School. Registration is 9:00am with a start time of 10:00am.

So talk to your friends and fellow parishioners and see if you can form a group to walk...get sponsors to pledge money to you for walking and get signed up at the following web site: www.fopwalk.org.

As with all SVDP fundraisers all proceeds raised by St. Mary walkers will stay here in Wayne County and go towards the work of the Society to help alleviate the suffering of those in need within the county.

Cathedral Updates...

From our Bishop

I write with joyful news updating the status of the Holy Name of Jesus Cathedral project. Grading work has been underway during the months since the groundbreaking ceremony in early 2015. Upon the completion of the architectural design on the project, and after a series of meetings with the City of Raleigh, a building permit was issued yesterday (July 30th) for the construction of the Cathedral. This means that beginning next week, the balance of the site work and the beginning of the actual construction for the Cathedral will commence. Presuming all goes according to plan, we expect the Cathedral to be completed sometime in mid-2017.

Respect LifeEvery Child a Wanted Child...PP View

Pro-Choice people claimed that Planned Parenthood was working to ensure, "that every child that is born is planned, wanted, loved and financially cared for". This idea was striking because advocates for abortion held out the same panacea of the elimination of "unwanted children" prior to the legalization of abortion. In fact, it was Planned Parenthood who at that time coined the phrase, "every child, a wanted child". Despite the fact that in the intervening period, some 56 million "unwanted" babies have lost their lives and child abuse has skyrocketed, it appears that the pro-choice people are still using this argument to justify abortion.

We of course, all agree that every child should be wanted. This is an idealistic goal, but sadly we do not live in an idyllic world. Would not it also be wonderful if there were no unwanted people? It is truly a frightening concept that in order to have the right to life, you must be wanted. Do not forget that Hitler's Germany was ideal for wanted Aryans! One must realize what takes place if a child is "not wanted" and admit the fact that he or she "must be aborted". To thus complete the sentence removes the mask from this misleading slogan and reveals it for the evil that it is!

~www.ProLife Articles for Bulletins

Please, pray the Rosary for an end to abortion.

EL COMIENZO DE TODO

Todo el mundo reconoce la verdad de los buenos proverbios, y por eso perduran de generación en generación. Los rusos tienen uno sorprendentemente audaz que le pega al Evangelio de este domingo: "El pan es el comienzo de todo".

De acuerdo a la primera lectura, puede ser que Elías sintiera que era demasiado tarde para ser pan -demasiado tarde para la vida misma. Este gran profeta estaba ya al final de sus fuerzas y de su aguante. Entonces no uno, sino dos ángeles lo visitan. Uno le ofrece comida y bebida. El otro le da unas sorprendentes instrucciones. Para Elías esta comida de los ángeles es pan para su camino. Fortalecido por este regalo celestial de comida, él sigue su camino a la montaña de Dios.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús se ofrece a sí mismo, no sólo como pan para el camino, sino como pan para la vida misma. Él da su carne para dar vida al mundo. "Yo soy el pan de vida" (Juan 6:48). Él es el comienzo de todo.
