Parish member (male or female) willing to help Marianne continue the important social ministry. Some party planning and cooking helpful but more important is a desire to facilitate social gatherings for fellow parishioners. As the outgoing Social Committee Chair, I will be willing to work with new volunteers for the first year to bridge the learning curve. If you would like to learn more about the Social Committee or if you would like to volunteer to be part of this committee please call the Parish Office at 919-734-5033 ext. 10 or 26.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the first steps to a Catholic wedding takes place in the parish rectory, as the newly engaged come forward to "set a date." We owe this scenario to reforms made by the emperor Charlemagne late in the eighth century. He required that nobles and commoners alike have public weddings, and also required that marrying couples be examined for factors that would block a marriage, such as previous marriages or close kinship. The pope was more conservative, however, and resisted the emperor's creativity. It was enough for the pope that the couples exchange consent.

That tradition is passed on to this day, to some couples' surprise. In 866, Pope Nicholas ruled that a marriage was legal and binding even without a liturgy or public celebration. After that, it was the consent of the couple, not the blessing of parents or priest, that made a marriage "count." If consent was lacking, such as through abduction or fear, then the marriage could not "take." Charlemagne got a great deal done, but he was a political flash in the pan, and the empire had virtually collapsed by the year 1000. Europe broke into a checkerboard of princedoms and languages, and at last all marriages came under the church, the glue holding the known world together.

Respect Life

The Same Mistake

March 6, 1857 was a very dark day in American history. By a 7-2 vote, the US Supreme Court declared Blacks were not legal persons.

Slavery was upheld. Fortunately, in 1868 the 14th Amendment to the Constitution overturned this awful ruling and equality of all people before the law was upheld. Notice, the law did not GIVE blacks this equality. They always had it! God made them equal. What happened with the 14th Amendment was that the law recognized the rights the slaves had from God; human law was brought into line with God's law.

Another very dark day came on January 22, 1973, by another 7-2 vote, the US Supreme Court said that this 14th Amendment DOES NOT APPLY to children in the first nine month of life in their mothers' wombs. The Roe v Wade decision was never requested or approved by the American people. Seven men simply declared that the pre-born baby is not entitled to have his/her life protected by law. A whole category of human beings was once again denied protection, just as in the previous century another category of human beings, the slaves were denied protection.

Modern biology and genetics, common sense and decency all tell us that this is terribly wrong. The fact is babies in the womb have just as much right to live as the rest of us and are just as much "persons" as the rest of us. When will human law once again be brought into line with God's law?

~Respect Life Articles for Bulletins.

Please, pray the Rosary for an end to abortion.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Cuaresma es tiempo de reconciliación por medio del perdón. En este espíritu, el Papa san Juan Pablo II pidió perdón por pecados cometidos por la Iglesia. Uno de estos pecados es la manera como América fue cristianizada.

La relación del latino con la religión católica ha sido entre buenas intenciones y antagonismos. Gracias a Dios, ¡somos cristianos! Lamentablemente, nuestro bautizo, en la mayor parte de los casos, fue en agua bendita y sangre indígena a la vez, ya que América fue evangelizada con cruz y espada. Los pobres misioneros que con fatiga, predicaron en nuestras tierras venían acompañados por hombres poderosos en busca de riquezas.

El filósofo romano-español Séneca (siglo I) afirmaba: "la religión es algo que para la persona común es verdad, para el sabio es falso y para el poderoso es útil". A su vez, el romano-judío Pablo de Tarso declara que en Cristo, Dios ha revelado que la persona común y necia derribará la falsedad de los sabios (1 Cor 1:18-31).

El latino creyente reconoce que su fe nació del dolor de la conquista y no niega los abusos clericales, pero confía en el Evangelio reconciliador. --Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Año Jubilar de la Misericordia 6 de marzo de 2016

Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma

Este es el domingo Laetare, nos alegramos así como Jesús que en el Evangelio de Lucas proclama que Dios es infinitamente misericordioso. La parábola del hijo prodigo que regresa a casa, no propiamente arrepentido sino desesperado, después de haber gastado en prostitutas (como lo dice su hermano mayor) su herencia que equivocadamente pidió a su padre aún vivo. Este hijo egoísta solo piensa en un ritual seguro de "vergüenza" cuando su padre se "demerita" así mismo al correr a abrazarlo, interrumpiendo su "acto de contrición" ya preparado. Desafiando a confesores y a todos nosotros, para ser signos de, dice el Papa Francisco, "ser siempre, en todas partes, en cada situación y a pesar de todo, el signo del primado de la misericordia". Al evitar la dureza del hijo mayor, el Papa Francisco nos advierte, "que se quedó afuera, incapaz de alegrarse, para explicarle que su juicio severo es injusto y no tiene ningún sentido delante de la misericordia del Padre que no conoce confines" (Misericordiae Vultus, 17). En caso que se proclame el Evangelio de Juan el pueblo "religiosamente obediente" en ese texto sirve como ejemplo para advertir de juzgar con dureza a los demás, el hombre ciego que recobró la vista es expulsado de la sinagoga mientras que en ellos su propia ceguera de corazón permanece.
